

EVIDENCE BASED MEDICINE AND INFORMATICS
CURRICULUM
2008– 2009

July	Orientation
August	Lecture on "Evidence Based Emergency Medicine: An Introduction to Key Concepts" "Using EBM to meet the requirements of Practices Based Learning and Improvement" Setting the residents goals for the academic year
September	"How to navigate the Florida Hospital Library": Ann McDonald, Library Coordinator An interactive session involving real time searching for information
October	Interactive Workshop: "Over-viewing EBEM Process" using review article from Annal of Emer Med on "Prehospital care" as example
November	"Using your PDA" with PEPID and Epocrates to access current information at the bedside
December	Lecture on the "Critical Appraisal of Therapy Articles" followed by Journal Club using articles on Therapy issues
January	Interactive computer workshop on "Calculators and Decision Support Tools" using real time searches
February	Lecture on the "Critical Appraisal of Diagnosis Articles" followed by Journal Club using articles on Diagnostic Issues
March	Interactive computer workshop on "Finding and Using Drug Resources" using real time searches
April	Lecture on "Summarizing the Evidence, Systematic Reviews" Journal Club: Critical Appraisal of Systematic Review Articles
May	Presentations by the residents of their Critically Appraised Topics "CATs"

Contact Us:

Bethany Ballinger MD MRCS

EBM and Informatics Coordinator

FH EM Residency Program

ballingerbl@cfl.rr.com